

MIDWEST UNDERGRADUATE
COGNITIVE SCIENCE CONFERENCE
<http://www.indiana.edu/~iusocs/mucsc>

What:

The IU Student Organization for Cognitive Science and the IU Cognitive Science Program present the Midwest Undergraduate Cognitive Science Conference. Present and absorb you and your peers' research, listen to keynote speaker Douglas Hofstadter, participate in a panel discussion on grad school, and tour some of IU's many cognitive science labs.

Where: Campus of Indiana University
Bloomington, Indiana 47408

Times: April 4th - 5th, 2009

Other: Potential speakers and poster presenters should send an abstract and paper to cogsconf@indiana.edu by February 12th. Talks will be up to 15 minutes in length, followed by a short Q & A session. Abstracts and papers will be peer-reviewed by the program committee and notifications will be sent via email by March 4th, 2009.

There will be no registration fee. Transportation and lodging arrangements are the responsibility of the participants, but see the website for more details.
